

CABLE ITEM LOST.

The Senate Recedes from Its Session.

No Agreement Could Be Reached in Conference.

In the Senate on March 1 the proposed appropriation of $500,000 for a Hawaiian cable was discussed.

Mr. Morgan read extracts from a message of President Cleveland in 1886, in which he said the importance of telegraphic communication between the Hawaiian Islands and the United States should not be overlooked. Referring to this, Mr. Morgan said that meant that Congress was to pass a law to accomplish this purpose. If the Government had the constitutional power to spend Government money making a survey for the cable why could it not lay a cable? In the course of his argument Morgan questioned whether any citizen of Hawaii might be induced to "wear the toga which some men in the Senate disgraced." Morgan closed at 12:45 a. m.

Blackburn's motion to recede was defeated—27 to 32—and the bill was sent back to conference.

The full vote was:

Ayes—Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Brice, Call, Cameron, Cockrell, Daniel, Faulkner, Gibson, Gordon, Gorman, Gray, Harris, Hutton, Jones of Arkansas, Lindsay, McLauren, Martin, Pascoe, Peffer, Pettigrew, Ransom, Roach, Smith, Vilas and Walsh—27.

Noes—Aldrich, Allen, Allison, Burrows, Butler, Cameron, Chandler, Clark, Culham, Dubois, Frye, Gallinger, Hale, Hansbrough, Hawley, Higgins, Hill, Lodge, McMillin, Manderson, Mitchell of Oregon, Morgan, Perkins, Platt, Proctor, Quay, Squire, Stewart, Teller, White Wilson of Washington and Wolcott, —32.

In announcing the pairs on the Hawaiian cable, Blackburn stated that Sherman had told him he would vote to recede, as he did not believe that either house should coerce the other.

On the following day Senator Blackburn presented another conference report on the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, stating that no agreement had been reached on the Hawaiian cable, and there was no prospect that the House would ever yield. The bill would fail, he said, if the Senate persisted, in the vote about to be taken, in keeping the cable appropriation in the bill. He believed also that the bill was doomed to failure even if the two houses acquiesced in the item.

Hawley quickly asked if it was meant to intimate that the President would veto the bill.

"I am not able to say," replied Blackburn, "that the President would veto it, but I know that if I were the President I would veto it."

Blackburn warned the Senate that another insistence on the cable then might mean an extra session. He thought perhaps that this might be desirable, as he believed it would show the next Congress as helpless in dealing with the financial question as this Congress had been. He moved that the Senate recede from the Hawaiian cable amendment.

White (D.) of California announced that he had heretofore supported the cable item, but he now felt compelled to change his vote.

Blackburn's motion to recede on the cable item was then put to a vote and carried without a division. The conference report on the diplomatic and consular bill was then agreed to.

In Agony

15 Years With Salt Rheum

Hood's Sarsaparilla Gave a Perfect Cure.

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'Hood's Sarsaparilla is an excellent medicine. I had eczema in my left leg for fifteen years. Part of the time my leg was one mass of scabs, and about every week corruption would gather under the skin and the scabs would slough off.

The itching and burning sensation made me suffer indescribable agonies. I spent a great deal of money for different remedies but did not get relief. About a year ago, leading physicians advised me to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. I did so and have taken five bottles. Now all the sores, scabs and pain have vanished and I am enjoying perfect health. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is second to none and gladly recommend it to all suffering humanity."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

did for the Invalid Daughter of a Prominent Lowell Tradesman.

"My daughter had for a long time been troubled with violent headaches and sleeplessness. She was pale, had no appetite, and was losing flesh rapidly. She took various remedies for her trouble, but received no benefit until she commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After taking half a bottle, she began to feel better. By a continued use of this medicine, her appetite returned, her cheeks began to fill out and show color, she gained in strength, her headaches disappeared, she slept better, and now says she feels like a new person."—F.
